STATE CONVENTION THIS WEEK.

The Body to Be in Session Thursday and Friday and Nearly 400 Delegates Expected-Gen. Roy Stone and Other Prominent Men to Speak.

The indications are that the Virginia Good-Roads Convention, which will be in the Assembly Hall of the Chamber of Commerce next Thursday and Friday, under the auspices of the State association, will be one of the most successful and important meetings held in this State for several years. Up to date about three hundred and seventy-five delegates to the conven ior have been appointed, representing nearly all of the counties in the State, chambers of commerce, boards of trade, city governments, railroad companies, county road associations, farmers' clubs, etc., and a large number of these delegates have already writen the Seretary of the State association that they will be present.

In arranging the programme of the In arranging the programme of the convention those having it in charge have tried to avoid long speeches, and the object will be to have every one present tell what he knows from experience, norder that the convention may result in reducing the cost of road-work and the introduction of more improved and the introduction of more improved. and more practical methods.

THE OPENING SESSION. THE OPENING SESSION.

The convention will be called together Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, with Vice-President B. B. Munford as temporary chairman; Rev. Dr. R. N. Sledd will offer prayer; Governor O'Ferrall will deliver an address of welcome, and Mr. Munford will speak on read improvement in Virginia and the work of the State association. After the work of organization the regular programme will be taken up. This, so far as arranged, is to be as follows:

The SECOND DAY

THE SECOND DAY.

THE SECOND DAY.

The second day's session will begin at 10 o'clock, and the programme embraces the following features;

"Road Legislation," report of Committee on Legislation, general discussion under five-minute rule. "Stone, Gravel, and Shell Roads," subject opened by J. C. Rawn, Esq. of Roanoke, president of the Engineers Association of Virginia; John Graham, Esq. of Norfolk, superintend ent of the Norfolk Company; Charles E. Ashburner, Esq. of Henrico, first vice-president of Virginia State Good Roads Association, followed by general discussion under five-minute rule.

REVIEW THE YEAR'S WORK.

REVIEW THE YEAR'S WORK. There will be a meeting of the Managing There will be a meeting of the State association at 1 o'clock, and the annual meeting of the association will be held at 10 o'clock on the morning of the 10th, both in the hall of the Chamber of Commerce.

The secretary of the association has about completed his annual report, which will be divided into three parts. Part first will contain a detailed review of the work of the association since its organization and a summary of the information which has been collected. Part second will be a brief but complete discussion of the road brief but complete discussion of the road question, divided into five chapters, under the following subjects: "The Economy of Road Improvement," "Road Legislation," "Road Materials in Virginia," "Road-Construction and Maintenance," and "Highway Bridges." Part third will be the appendix, containing a brief report of each county, giving a summary of the road conditions, road methods, taxation, comparison, of past and expenditures, comparison of past and present system, and other information that has been collected from special re-ports of county officers, and various offiports of county officers, and values con-cial reports. The appendix will also con-tain a very interesting and valuable paper on the "Valley Turnpike," by Pro-fessor Samuel M. Barton, of the University of the South, Sewanee Tenn. This paper will set forth clearly the laws, road methods, and cost of road-making at the time that this turnpike was constructed about 18:0-as well as much information of value in the road-work of to-day.

Polk Miller Here This Week. Polk Miller is announced to sive an evening of his ever-delightful songs and stories next week in Richmond He will appear at the Young Man's Christian Association Hall on Thursday evening, the 10th, and this will be his only public appearance in Richmond this year. Since his agreement in the Academy of Music appearance in the Academy of Music last February, when he was accorded a veritable ovation, Mr. Miller has been almost continuously engaged, and has been heard in the principal towns from Northern New York to Western Texas. and has in every instance won the warm appreciation of his audiences, as well as the favorable criticism of the press.

The Stagg Loss Not So Heavy. Large crowds of people visited the ruins of Stagg's pianing-mill, on Cary street yesterday, and gazed upon the devasia-tion caused by the fire of Friday night. Investigation shows that the loss will not be so heavy as was at first anticipat not be so heavy as was at first anticipated. The engine, a handsome piece of machinery, was somewhat protected, and was saved. The loss will be between $25,000 and $30,000. This is not nearly covered by insurance, as Mr. Stagg only carried about $10,000. Of this $3,000 was in the Mechanics' Fire Insurance Company, and $3,000 in the Richmond Mutual. The remainder is in out-of-town companies. Mr. Stagg will rebuild at once.

Another Move in the Women's Behalf.

Captain George D. Wise, Judge Henry W. Flournoy, and Mr. A. B. Guigon counsel for the three women convicted of the murder of Mrs. Lucy Jane Pollard, of Lunenburg, having obtained a writ of error from the Supreme Court of Appeals for their client, are now straining every nerve toward getting for them a new trial. As a preliminary step toward this end, they yesterday filed an amended petition in all three cases, with the Suprem Court Cirek, incorporating in each the neveral affidavits which were expunged from the record by Judge Coleman.

RHEUMATISM, CATARRH, DYSPEP-SIA, AND OTHER AILMENTS CURED BY THE USE OF HIS WONDERFUL LITTLE PEL-

Druggists Say the People Are Asking for Munyon's Improved Homoeopathic Remedies, and Will Have Nothing Else.

General E. L. Townsend, one of the most distinguished soldiers of the late war, and who resides at No. 320 Poplar street. Philadelphia, Pa., says:
"For a number of years I suffered with rheumatic pains in my limbs, which ook the worst form of that nerveracking disease—sciatica. I tried all sorts of medicines without benefit. The disease grew worse, and I was in constant torment. Finally I procured a bottle of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure from a drugstore, and after taking it a short time I was en irely cured."

The Munyon Remedies are absolutely harmless, and effect prompt cures in all diseases. A separate specific for each disease. Positive cures for Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Catarrh. Neuralgia, Kidney, Liver, and Bladder troubles; Blood and Skin diseases, all nervous affections, and Female Complaints. No matter what the disease or how many doctors have failed, ask your druggist for a free copy of Munyon's Guide to Health, select a 25-cent remedy, and cure yourself.

Personal letters to Professor Munyon, 1055 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.
